Alex Cameron is Chair of Fasken Martineau's Privacy & Information Protection Group. He has a leading practice in the areas of privacy and cybersecurity, freedom of information, Canada's Anti-Spam Law and litigation. He is consistently sought out by clients from all industry sectors, including numerous Fortune 100 and 500 companies, in all aspects of privacy law and information security. He has helped clients to respond to cybersecurity and other breaches involving millions of affected individuals. In recognition of his expertise, has received a doctoral degree in the field of privacy law and a number of prestigious commissions from the Office of the Privacy Commissioner of Canada. He is a former member of the Advisory Board of the International Association of Privacy Professionals, Canada and past Chair of the Canadian Bar Association, National Privacy & Access Law Section. An accomplished litigator, Alex has acted as lead counsel in commercial disputes, landmark cases and regulatory investigations in his areas of practice, including data breach class action litigation and high-profile freedom of information matters, and before all levels of court, including the Supreme Court of Canada. Alex is consistently listed in Chambers and The Best Lawyers in Canada in the fields of Privacy and Data Protection Law and was also named as the 2018 Toronto Privacy and Data Security Law "Lawyer of the Year".
