

Richard Corley

Goodmans LLP

rcorley@goodmans.ca

416.597.4197

Richard is a partner at Goodmans and leads Goodman's Outsourcing and Cleantech practices. He has over 25 years of experience advising clients on complex outsourcing transactions, technology M&A, joint ventures, cleantech and other technology-related matters. Richard is focused on the growing information technology and cleantech sectors, and on the integration of cleantech with information technology. His professional expertise complements his personal interest and involvement in energy conservation and clean energy alternatives. He is currently involved with the Canadian implementation of the Third Industrial Revolution initiative, which integrates distributed renewable energy, low-energy buildings, intelligent power distribution and management, electric vehicles and energy storage systems. He was recently named a member of Canada's 2016 Clean50, a program honouring leaders who are advancing the cause of sustainability in Canada. Richard is recognized as a leading Canadian technology lawyer in numerous publications including: The Legal 500 Canada, Chambers, The Canadian Legal Lexpert Directory, The Lexpert /American Lawyer Guide to the Leading 500 Lawyers in Canada, Legal Media Group's The Best of the Best, The Best Lawyers in Canada and Law Business Research's The International Who's Who of Business Lawyers. He is the Secretary of the Centre for Outsourcing Research and Education (CORE), a member of the Board of IT.Can, and a member of CORE, International Technology Law Association, Toronto Computer Lawyers' Group, International Association of Outsourcing Professionals, Ontario Sustainable Energy Association and Climate Change Lawyers' Network.