

Josh Death
AVP Legal – IP and Patentable Innovation
The Toronto-Dominion Bank

Josh founded and manages TD's intellectual property office. His team is responsible for all of TD's intellectual property matters on a global basis, including, litigation, M&A, prosecution and commercial transactions. Josh established TD's intellectual property policy and its open source policy (jointly with architecture).

In 2012, Josh founded TD's office of patentable innovation with the mandate to develop TD's patent portfolio. Since establishing the office, Josh's team has been able to increase TD's patent filings by 10 times.

Prior to joining TD, Josh worked at Donahue Ernst & Young and Torys with a practice split between IP and IT law.

Josh received a B.A. from Western University in Philosophy and a LL.B. from Windsor. Josh is married with a son.