Lisa Ford has been dedicated to business product development for Royal Bank of Canada for over a decade. Since joining the bank in 2004, she has helped to launch new and innovative products for business clients in the areas of deposits, cash management, digital channels, foreign exchange, and payments. Recently, Lisa has been appointed as the senior legal advisor for payments, as part of the RBC Law Group's Digital, Payments and Cards team. In this new role, she is responsible for enterprise-wide initiatives related to Payments Canada's Modernization and the use of other networks and new technologies for global payments.
