

Sabrina N. Guenther Frigo is an associate in Jenner & Block LLP's Privacy and Information Governance Practice. Clients seek her advice on data privacy and security issues throughout their data lifecycles, including privacy policies, cross-border data transfers, service provider management, data breach response, and information governance and record retention. Ms. Guenther Frigo's background includes complex civil litigation, regulatory response, and international internal investigations, perspectives she actively incorporates into her privacy practice.

Ms. Guenther Frigo counsels clients across numerous industries, including technology, ecommerce and retail, media and entertainment, and financial services. She specializes in global privacy compliance and cross-border data transfer mechanisms, including preparing clients for the EU General Data Protection Regulation and certifying to the US/EU Privacy Shield. She regularly publishes on emerging privacy and security issues and their effect on companies' compliance and internal operations.
