

BIOGRAPHY

SHARON GROOM is a Partner at McMillan LLP in Toronto where her practice focuses on Intellectual Property and Advertising and Marketing law. Prior to joining the firm, Sharon practiced in house with Harlequin Enterprises Limited where she was Director of Legal Affairs as well as in charge of their global portfolio of trade-marks, Thomas Cook Group where she was General Counsel for the Americas and Newbridge Networks Corporation where she advised on various technology issues. Sharon is also an adjudicator for .ca domain name disputes. Sharon received her B. Mus. in piano performance and LL.B from Queen's University.