

WENDY GROSS

Wendy is co-Chair of Osler's Technology Group. Wendy specializes in outsourcing and other complex corporate and commercial transactions relating to technology products and services and business processes and related regulatory and other legal issues including the following areas: payment systems and networks; cloud computing; OSFI B-10 compliance; privacy and data protection; new and emerging technologies such as AI and blockchain; public and private procurement; offshore and nearshore transactions; e-commerce; social media; anti-spam; consumer protection; marketing and advertising; and intellectual property protection and licensing. Wendy has extensive experience advising financial services, telecommunications, energy, life sciences, e-commerce companies and retailers in these areas. She is a Registered Trademark Agent in Canada. Wendy is also recognized in Chambers Global: The World's Leading Business Lawyers, Best Lawyers in Canada, The Canadian Legal Lexpert® Directory, Who's Who Legal and the Expert Guides. Became a member of the Ontario Bar in 1993.