

Christine G. Ing

Partner, Toronto

Blake, Cassels & Graydon LLP
Direct 416-863-2667
Facsimile 416-863-2653
christine.ing@blakes.com

Blakes

business is our signature

PROFILE

Christine Ing is Co-Practice Group Leader of the Firm's Information Technology group. Her practice focuses on commercial transactions involving information technology and intellectual property. Christine has extensive experience in all aspects of information technology law, including outsourcing, cloud service arrangements, systems and software acquisitions, systems and software development and licensing. She has particular expertise in information security, including regulated industries. Christine has significant experience in the payments space and has led large payment network deals on behalf of issuers.

Christine has been recognized by Chambers Global: The World's Leading Lawyers for Business. She is also recognized in the Canadian Legal Lexpert Directory (Computer & IT Law, and Technology Transactions) and the Lexpert/American Lawyer Guide to the Leading 500 Lawyers in Canada (Computer & IT Law) as well as in The Best Lawyers International (Information Technology Law), Who's Who Legal: Telecommunications Media & Technology and The Legal 500 Canada (Technology).