Nikki is Assistant General Counsel of Deloitte LLP, one of Canada's largest professional services firms. Nikki provides guidance on complex commercial transactions, frequently to the firm's technology consulting practice. Nikki's functional and even-handed agreements have contributed to Deloitte's success in the public procurement sector. She is currently the Canadian firm's designated global negotiator for tax contracts and deputy qualified negotiator for global cross-border contracting and is a member of the Steering Committee for Deloitte's Office of Sales Leadership in consulting.

Nikki has a combined MBA/LLB from Dalhousie University and a BComm from Carleton University. Nikki is a member of the Association of Corporate Counsel, and holds her Canadian privacy designation (CIPP/C) from the International Association of Privacy Professionals.

Nikki is currently a member of the Steering Committee for ACT, Deloitte's pro-bono consulting initiative.

In 2012 Nikki was named a winner of LExpert's "Rising Stars" (Top 40 lawyers under 40).
