

PETER RUBY

pruby@goodmans.ca

416.597.4184

Peter Ruby is a partner at Goodmans. He has a national and international practice focused on business and information technology dispute resolution, including software, telecommunications, privacy and data protection, intellectual property, ecommerce and internet litigation, Canadian and cross-border arbitration, mediation and advice. Peter represents both large multi-national organizations and some of Canada's most entrepreneurial providers and users of information technology. With respect to privacy and data protection, Peter has successfully litigated business-related privacy cases that have been brought before the courts and has considerable experience assisting clients in dealing with privacy breach incidents. Peter is recognized as a leading IT litigator in Chambers Global Guide to The World's Leading Lawyers for Business, The Canadian Legal Lexpert Directory, Euromoney's Guide to The World's Leading Information Technology Lawyers and The Best Lawyers in Canada, and is also recognized by Benchmark Canada: The Guide to Canada's Leading Litigation Firms and Attorneys in the areas of international arbitration, energy and intellectual property. Peter was a law clerk to the Federal Court of Canada and is a Professor of Law (adj.) at the University of Toronto teaching Telecommunications and Internet Law. He was a co-chair of the 2017 World Technology Law Conference in Chicago.