

MICHEL SOLIS

Michel Solis is the owner of Solis Juritech. He specializes in the legal aspects of the development, marketing, sale, distribution, implementation and delivery of computer hardware or software products and IT services, including Internet and e-commerce issues.

Main area of work : negotiation (initial as well as regarding incidents during an agreement), drafting and counseling regarding IT contracts such as licenses, SAAS and SLA agreements, distribution agreements, turnkey system agreements, custom development contracts, website T&Cs, privacy policies, technology transfers, etc, as well as regarding Intellectual Property in IT. Michel also acts as an arbitrator in IT litigation cases.

Michel has more than twenty-five years experience as IT Law counsel, and has been identified for many years by Lexpert and BestLawyers.com for the quality of his work.

Also, Michel was the BestLawyers.com Montreal IT Lawyer of the Year for 2013, a winner of the International Law Office Client Choice Award for 2011, and included in Who's Who Legal recommended IT lawyers in Canada for many years.

Trilingual: French, English, and Spanish.