

Elisabeth Symons helps public and private sector organizations to understand the legal issues that they face relating to technology and address them in creative and practical ways that help them to meet their objectives. She assists clients with: (i) a wide variety of technology agreements; (ii) procurement of technology; (iii) issues relating to distressed technology projects; and (iv) Internet issues.

Elisabeth is a former Vice President of the Canadian IT Law Association and a Past Chair of the Information Technology and Intellectual Property Law Section of the Ontario Bar Association. She is the co-author of chapters in Electronic Commerce – A Practitioner's Guide (Carswell) and Business Laws of Canada (West). She has been named by the Chambers Global Guide in the field of information technology law.

Prior to founding Mann Symons LLP, Elisabeth worked at prominent law firms in Canada and technology companies. A detailed biography is available at www.mannsymons.com.