

Stephen Whitney, VP, General Counsel, Sandvine Incorporated ULC

Stephen is responsible for worldwide legal, compliance, and regulatory matters at Sandvine. His responsibilities include global export controls compliance. Previously he was Of Counsel at Norton Rose Fulbright Canada LLP from 2014 to 2017. Prior to Norton Rose Fulbright, Stephen spent fourteen years at Research In Motion Limited/BlackBerry Limited where he held various legal positions, including his last as VP, Divisional General Counsel, Devices & Emerging Solutions with responsibility for advising on inbound licensing, manufacturing, repair, distribution, and lawful access. While at BlackBerry, Stephen led the export controls team responsible for global export controls compliance for about 12 years.

